

East Hampton Junior Women's Club

2007 Scholarship Application

Deadline for returning application to Guidance Office: May 7, 2007

As a service organization, the Junior Women's Club is pleased to offer a scholarship to an East Hampton resident who is presently a high school senior and has demonstrated outstanding interest and effort in school and community service.

Any high school senior residing in East Hampton who intends to further her or his education beyond high school in a full time course of study is eligible to apply for this scholarship.

The total amount of this one time scholarship is presently $500.00.

Name: _____

Address: _____

Telephone: _____

High School: _____

East Hampton Junior Women's Club Scholarship Application

Part 1:

List the colleges you have applied to. Please list in order of your personal preference and indicate whether or not you have been accepted.

1. School: _____

Accepted? _____

2. School: _____

Accepted? _____

3. School: _____

Accepted? _____

4. School: _____

Accepted? _____

5. School: _____

Accepted? _____

What is your intended course of study?

East Hampton Junior Women's Club Scholarship Application

Part 2: School Activities

On separate paper, please list the school activities that you have participated in and organizations that you have belonged to. Include the name of activity/organization, dates of participation or membership, number of hours per month involved with activity/organization, and any offices or leadership positions held.

Part 3: Volunteer Community Activities

On separate paper, please list the volunteer community activities that you have participated in and organizations that you have belonged to. Include the name of activity/organization, dates of participation or membership, number of hours per month involved with activity/organization, and any offices or leadership positions held.

Part 4: Essay

On separate paper please write an essay answering the following question.

Describe how your voluntary services, activities and contributions have been beneficial to your school and community. Please include specific examples.

Part 5: Letters of Recommendation

Please include two letters of recommendation. Only one of them may be from a professional connected with your school (teacher, principal or guidance counselor). The other one may be from: employer, clergy, scout leader, coach etc. Please inform the letter writers not to mention your name anywhere in the text of the recommendation.

Return your completed application to the Guidance Office.

Thank you for applying for the East Hampton Junior Women's Club Scholarship.